- b. consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares:
- c. convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;
- d. sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum so however, that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced shares shall be the same as it was in the case of the shares from which the reduced share is derived;
- e. cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Provided that any consolidation and division which results in changes in the voting percentage of members shall require applicable approvals under the Act;

The resolution whereby any share is sub-divided may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from such sub-division one or more of such shares shall have some preference or special advantage as regards the dividend, capital or otherwise over or as compared with the others.

5.2 The Company may reduce in any manner and in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Rules -

- a. its share capital; and/or
- b. any capital redemption reserve account; and/or
- c. any securities premium account; and/or
- d. any other Reserve as may be available.

5.3 Where shares are converted into stock, the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same Articles under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose;

5.4 The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage; such of these Articles of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder"/"member" shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

6 CALLS

6.1 The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times.

Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call.

6.2 Each member shall, subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the Company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.

6.3 A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

6.4 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed.

6.5 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls or installments due in respect thereof.

6.6 If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof (the "due date"), the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the due date to the time of actual payment at such rate as may be determined by the Board.

6.7 The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

6.8 Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall, for the purposes of these Articles, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

6.9 In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

6.10 The Board

- a. may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and

- b. upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate as may be agreed upon between the Board and the member paying the sum in advance.

Nothing contained in this Article shall confer on the member (a) any right to participate in profits or dividends or (b) any voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would, but for such payment, become presently payable by him.

- 6.11 upon all or any of the moneys so advanced, may (until the same would but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding, unless the Company in General Meeting shall otherwise direct, six per cent per annum as may be agreed upon between the Board and the members paying the sum in advance. Moneys paid in advance of calls shall not in respect thereof confer a right to dividend or to participate in the Profit of the Company.
- 6.12 The Company may, by special resolution, determine that any portion of its share capital which has not already been called upon shall not be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the Company being wound up and thereupon that portion of its share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in that event and for those purposes
- 6.13 The Board may, from time to time, at its discretion, extend the time fixed for the payment of any call in respect of one or more members as the Board may deem appropriate in any circumstances, but no members shall be entitled to such extension save as a matter of grace and favour.
- 6.14 If by the conditions of allotment of any shares, the whole or part of the amount of issue price thereof shall be payable by installment, then every such installment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who, for the time being and from time to time, is or shall be the registered holder of the share or the legal representative of a deceased registered holder.
- 6.15 Where any calls for further share capital are made on shares, such calls shall be made on a uniform basis on all shares falling under the same class. For the purposes of this Article, shares of the same nominal value on which different amounts have been paid-up shall not be deemed to fall under the same class.
- 6.16 The money, (if any), which the Board shall, on the allotment of any shares being made by them, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by them, shall, immediately on the insertion of the name of the allottee in the Register of Members as the name of the holder of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the Company from the allottee thereof, and shall be paid by him accordingly.
- 6.17 Neither a judgment nor a decree in favour of the Company for calls or other moneys due in respect of any share nor any part payment or satisfaction thereof nor the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member in respect of any share either by way of principal or interest nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of payment of any such money shall preclude the forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.
- 6.18 The provisions of these Articles relating to calls shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company.

7 LIEN

7.1 The Company shall have a first and paramount lien:

- a. on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and
- b. on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a member, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the Company:

Provided that the Board may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article.

7.2 The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien:

Provided that no sale shall be made

- a. unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or
- b. until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or to the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.

Upon any such sale as aforesaid the certificates in respect of the shares sold shall stand cancelled and become null and void and of no effect and the Board shall be entitled to issue a new certificate or certificates in lieu thereof to the purchaser or purchasers concerned.

7.3 To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.

The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.

The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings with reference to the sale.

7.4 The proceeds of the sale after payment of the costs of such sale shall be received by the Company and applied towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.

The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

7.5 The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable and bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.

7.6 Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien.

7.7 In exercising its lien, the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not (except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or unless required by any statute) be bound to recognise any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person, whether a creditor of the registered holder or otherwise. The Company's lien shall prevail notwithstanding that it has received notice of any such claim.

8 FORFEITURE

8.1 If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call or any money due in respect of any share, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid or a judgement or decree in respect thereof remains unsatisfied in whole or in part, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment or other money as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of non-payment.

8.2 The notice aforesaid shall:

a. name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and

b. state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited

8.3 If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or any other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

8.4 A forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold or re-allotted or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Board thinks fit.

8.5 At any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.

8.6 A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay, and shall pay, to the Company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares.

8.7 The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.

- 8.8 A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director, the Manager or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and that declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof, shall constitute a good title to the share.
- 8.9 The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale, re- allotment or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.
- 8.10 The provision of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non payment of any sum which by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time whether on account of the nominal value of the share or byway of premium as if the same has been payable by virtue of a call made and notified.
- 8.11 Where any shares forfeited herein contained are sold by the Board and the certificates thereof have not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of the said shares, the Board may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it, in such manner as they may think fit, from the certificates not so delivered.
- 8.12 Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which may from time to time be due from any member in respect of his shares, nor any indulgence that may be granted by the Company in respect of payment of any such money, shall preclude the Company from thereafter proceeding to enforce a forfeiture in respect of such shares as herein provided.
- 8.13 When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the defaulting member and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission or neglect or any failure to give such notice or make such entry as aforesaid.
- 8.14 The forfeiture of a share shall involve extinction at the time of forfeiture, of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company, in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share.
- 8.15 All such monies payable shall be paid together with interest thereon at such rate as the Board may determine, from the time of forfeiture until payment or realisation. The Board may, if it thinks fit, but without being under any obligation to do so, enforce the payment of the whole or any portion of the monies due, without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or waive payment in whole or in part.
- 8.16 The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share.
- 8.17 The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, re- allotment or disposal of the share.

- 8.18 Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in exercise of the powers hereinabove given, the Board may, if necessary, appoint some person to execute an instrument for transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register of Members in respect of the shares sold and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person.
- 8.19 Upon any sale, re-allotment or other disposal under the provisions of the preceding Articles, the certificate(s), if any, originally issued in respect of the relative shares shall (unless the same shall on demand by the Company has been previously surrendered to it by the defaulting member) stand cancelled and become null and void and be of no effect, and the Board shall be entitled to issue a duplicate certificate(s) in respect of the said shares to the person(s) entitled thereto.
- 8.20 The Board may, accept a surrender of any share from or by any member desirous of surrendering them on such terms as they think fit.
- 8.21 The provisions of these Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 8.22 The provisions of these Articles relating to forfeiture of shares shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company.

9 TRANSFER OF SHARES

- 9.1 The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.
- 9.2 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, shares in the Company may be transferred by an instrument in writing in such form and by such procedure as from time to time may be prescribed by law.
- 9.3 Nothing in this Article shall apply to a transfer of securities effected by the transferor and transferee both of whom are entered as beneficial owners in the records of a Depository.
- 9.4 An application for the registration of a transfer of the shares in the Company may be made either by the transferor or the transferee. Where the application is made by the transferor and relates to partly paid shares, the transfer shall not be registered unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee and the transferee makes no objection to the transfer within two weeks from the receipt of the notice.

For the purposes of this Article, above notice to the transferee shall be deemed to have been duly given if it is despatched by registered post to the transferee at the address given in the instrument of transfer and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered at the time at which it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

The Company shall not register a transfer of shares in the Company unless a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee along with requisite documents as prescribed by law or by the Company at its own discretion, has been delivered to the Company along with the certificate relating to the shares, or if no such certificate is in existence, along with the letter of allotment of securities. Provided that where, on an application in writing made to the Company by the transferee and bearing the stamp required for an instrument of transfer, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board that the instrument of transfer signed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been lost, the Company may register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Board may think fit, provided further that nothing in this Article shall prejudice any power of the Company to register as shareholder any person to whom the right to any shares in the Company has been transmitted by operation of law.

9.5 The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

9.6 Application for the registration of a transfer of shares of a member in the Company may be made either by the transferee or by the transferor,

Where the application is made by the transferor and relates to partly paid shares, the transfer shall not be registered unless the Company gives the notice of the application to the transferee and the transferor makes no objection to the transfer within two weeks from the receipt of the notice.

For the purpose of clause (2) hereof, notice to the transferee shall be deemed to have been duly given, if it is dispatched by prepaid registered post to the transferee at the address given in the instrument of transfer and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered at the time at the time at which it should have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

9.7 The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by the Act decline to register

- (a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve; or
- (b) any transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien.

Subject to the provisions of the Act and the provisions of these Articles, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, the Board may, at their own absolute and uncontrolled discretion, and without assigning any reason, decline to register or acknowledge any transfer of shares and, in particular, may so decline such transfer in cases mentioned hereinabove and such refusal shall not be affected by the fact that the proposed transferee is already a member. The registration of a transfer shall be conclusive evidence of the approval of the transfer by the Board.

9.8 In case of shares held in physical form, the Board may decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless

- (c) the instrument of transfer is duly executed and is in the form as prescribed in the Rules made under the Act;

(d) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and

(e) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.

9.9 If the Company refuses to register the transfer of any share or of any share right therein, the Company shall within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company send notice of refusal to the transferee and transferor or to the person giving information of the transmission, as the case may be, and thereupon the provision of Section 56 of the Act or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force shall apply.

9.10 The provision of this clause shall apply to transfers of stock.

9.11 No transfer of any share shall be made to a minor or a person of unsound mind.

9.12 The instrument of transfer shall after registration be retained by the Company and shall remain in its custody. All instruments of transfer which the Board may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the persons depositing the same. The Board may cause to be destroyed all transfer deeds lying with the Company for a period as prescribed under the Act.

9.13 Any member on transferring only some of the share held by him in the Company, may on application being made by him, be granted without payment, a new certificate or certificates for the remaining shares held by him provided that such member shall return the old certificate to the Company. The Company shall also not charge any fee for sub-division and/or consolidation of certificates into market unit of trading, and for sub-division of letters of allotment and split, consolidation, renewal and pucca transfer receipts into denominations corresponding to the market unit of trading

9.14 Nothing contained in the Articles which is inconsistent with the provisions of Depositories Act,1996 shall apply to a transfer of securities effected by a transferor or transferee both of whom are entered as beneficial owners in the records of a Depository.

9.15 The Company shall maintain "Register of Members" in physical or electronic form and shall enter the particulars of every transfer or transmission of any shares and all other particulars of share as required by the Act in such register.

9.16 The Board of Directors may close the Register of Members or the register of debenture holders or the register of other security holders for any period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate forty-five days in each year, but not exceeding thirty days at any one time, subject to giving of previous notice of at least seven days or such lesser period as may be specified by SEBI by an advertisement in a vernacular newspaper in the principal vernacular language of the district and having wide circulation in the place where the registered office of the Company is situated, and at least once in English language in an English newspaper circulating in that district and having wide circulation in the place where the registered office of the Company is situated and publish the notice on the website of the Company or in such other manner as may be required by the Act, Rules or Regulations in force.

- 9.17 No fee shall be charged by the Company for transfer of shares or transmission of shares or for registration of any Powers of Attorney, Probates, Letter of Administration or similar documents except in respect of issue of fresh Share Certificates in lieu of surrendered certificates for consolidation, splitting or otherwise.
- 9.18 A transfer of a share in the Company of a deceased member thereof made by his legal representative(s) shall, although the legal representative himself is not a member, be as valid as if he had been a member at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.
- 9.19 On giving of previous notice of at least seven days or such lesser period in accordance with the Act and Rules made thereunder or the Listing Regulations, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

- 9.20 The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company.

10 TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 10.1 On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees (nominated as per section 72 of the Act) or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares.

The executors or administrators of a deceased member or a holder of a Succession Certificate shall be the only person whom the Company will be bound to recognise as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and the Company shall not be bound to recognize such executors or administrators unless such executors or administrators shall have first obtained Probate of Will or Letters of Administration as the case may be from a duly Constituted Court in India or Succession Certificate as may be applicable in terms of Indian Succession Act, 1925 and in absence of which, on production of such other documents as the Company may require subject to the provisions of the Act, Rules and regulations in this regard.

Provided that if the member is a member of a Joint Hindu family, the Board on being satisfied to that effect and on being satisfied that the shares standing in his name in fact belong to the joint family may recognize the survivors or the Karta thereof as having title to the shares registered in the name of such member after production of such documents as may be prescribed under the Act or Rules or regulations in force and at the discretion of the Board.

Notwithstanding anything contained hereinabove, in the event of any holder(s) of shares of the Company making any nomination as per section 72 of the Act, such nominee shall subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act, be recognised by the Company as having title to those shares in the event of death of the original holder.

10.2 Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either

- a. to be registered himself as holder of the share; or
- b. to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.

The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.

10.3 If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.

All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.

10.4 The board may retain dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person may by virtue of transmission become entitled to until such person is registered as a member in respect thereof.

10.5 The Company shall be fully indemnified by such person from all liability, if any, by actions taken by the Board to give effect to such registration or transfer.

10.6 The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whether in consequence of their registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made, by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the register of members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to or in the same shares notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable right or title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice or referred thereto in any book of the Company and the Company shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right, title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in the book of the Company; but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to have regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto, if the Board shall think fit.

10.7 Except as specifically provide in these articles, the provisions relating to joint holders of shares, calls, lien on shares, forfeiture of shares, transfer and transmission of shares and voting at meetings shall be applicable to shares held in a depository so far as they apply to shares held in physical form subject to the provisions of Depositorie sAct, 1996.

- 10.8 A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company:

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

- 10.9 The provisions of these Articles relating to transmission by operation of law shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company.

11 JOINT HOLDERS

- 11.1 Where two or more persons are registered as joint holders (not more than three) of any share, they shall be deemed (so far as the Company is concerned) to hold the same as joint tenants with benefits of survivorship, subject to the following and other provisions contained in these Articles.
- 11.2 The joint-holders of any share shall be liable severally as well as jointly for and in respect of all calls or installments and other payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.
- 11.3 On the death of any one or more of such joint-holders, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the share but the Board may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit, and nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint-holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person.
- 11.4 Any one of such joint holders may give effectual receipts of any dividends, interests or other moneys payable in respect of such share.
- 11.5 Only the person whose name stands first in the register of members as one of the joint-holders of any share shall be entitled to the delivery of certificate, if any, relating to such share or to receive notice (which term shall be deemed to include all relevant documents) and any notice served on or sent to such person shall be deemed service on all the joint holders.
- 11.6 Any one of two or more joint-holders may vote at any meeting either personally or by attorney or by proxy in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy or by attorney then that one of such persons so present whose name stands first or higher (as the case may be) on the register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose (deceased member) sole name any share stands, shall for the purpose of this Article be deemed joint-holders.
- 11.7 The provisions of these Articles relating to joint holders of shares shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company registered in joint names.

12 BUY BACK

Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles but subject to applicable provisions of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

13 SHARE WARRANTS

The Company with respect to fully paid-up shares may issues warrants (hereinafter called "share warrants") stating that the bearer is entitled to the shares therein specified and may provide by coupons or otherwise for the payment of future dividends on the shares included in such warrants. The Directors may determine and from time to time vary the conditions upon which share warrants shall be issued and in particular the condition that a new share warrant or coupon will be issued in the place of one worn out, defaced, lost or destroyed or upon which the bearer of a share warrant may be surrendered, and the name of the bearer entered in the Register in respect of the shares therein specified. The bearer of share warrant shall be subject to the conditions for the time being in force, whether made before or after the issue of such warrant. Share warrants shall not be taken in to account as constituting or contributing to the qualification of a Director, provided that no share warrant shall be issued without the previous approval of the Central Government.

14 MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

- 14.1 The rights attached to any class of shares (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of Section 48 and 235of the Act and whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourth of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holder of the shares of that class.
- 14.2 To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations, relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class in question.
- 14.3 The rights conferred upon the holder of the shares of any class issued with preferred rights shall unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

15 DEBENTURES

- 15.1 Any debentures or other securities may be issued at a discount premium or otherwise and may be so framed that the same shall be assignable free from any equities between the Company and the original or any intermediate holders.
- 15.2 The Company may, subject to the provisions of Section 71 of the Act, keep any redeemed debentures alive for the purpose of re-issuing and the Company shall have power either to re-issue the same debentures or to issue other debentures in their place.
- 15.3 The provisions contained in these presents relating to the transfer and transmission of shares shall apply mutatis mutandis to the transfer and transmission respectively of debentures hitherto issued or which may hereafter be issued by the Company.

15.4 Debenture/Debenture Stock, Loan/Loan Stock, bonds or other securities conferring the right to allotment or conversion into shares or the option or right to call for allotment of shares shall not be issued except with the sanction of the/Company in General Meeting.

16 GENERAL MEETINGS

16.1 The Company shall, in addition to any other meetings, hold a General Meeting (herein called as "Annual General Meeting") in accordance with the provisions herein specified and under the Act.

16.2 The Annual General Meeting of the Company, other than the first Annual General Meeting, shall be held within six months from the date of closing of the financial year;

Provided however that if the Registrar of Companies or any other statutory authority as prescribed by the Act, for any special reason, extends the time within which any Annual General Meeting shall be held by a further period not exceeding three months, then the Annual General Meeting may be held within such additional time as fixed by the Registrar or such other authority.

Except in cases where the Registrar has given an extension of time as aforesaid for holding any Annual General Meeting, not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting and that of the next.

16.3 In the case of an Annual General Meeting, all business to be transacted thereat shall be deemed special, other than

- a. the consideration of financial statements and the reports of the Board of Directors and auditors;
- b. the declaration of any dividend;
- c. the appointment of directors in the place of those retiring
- d. the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors;

In the case of any other meeting, all business shall be deemed to be special.

16.4 Subject to the provisions of the Act, every Annual General Meeting shall be called during business hours, that is, between 9 AM. and 6 PM on any day not being a National Holiday.

16.5 The meeting shall be held either at the registered office of the Company or at some other place within the city where the registered office is situated, as the Board may decide.

16.6 All General Meetings other than an Annual General Meeting shall be called Extraordinary General Meeting.

The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an Extraordinary General Meeting.

16.7 Calling of Extraordinary General Meeting by requestion.

- 16.7.1 The Board of Directors shall, at the requisition made by such number of members and in such manner prescribed under the Act call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company. Such requisition from the members shall be provided in writing or electronic mode at least clear twenty one days prior to the proposed date of such Extraordinary General Meeting.
- 16.7.2 The requisition shall set out the matters for the consideration of which the meeting is to be called and shall be signed by the requisitionists and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or sent to the Company by registered post addressed to the registered Office of the Company.
- 16.7.3 If the Board of Directors do not, within twenty-one days from the date of the receipt of a valid requisition in regard to any matters, proceed duly to call a meeting for the consideration of those matters on a day not later than forty-five days from the date of the receipt of the requisition, the meeting may be called by the requisitionists themselves within a period of three months from the date of the requisition.
- 16.7.4 A meeting called by the requisitionists shall be called and held in the same manner in which the meeting is called and held by the Board.
- 16.7.5 Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the Board duly to call a meeting shall be reimbursed to the requisitionists by the Company and any sum so repaid shall be deducted from any fee or other remuneration under Section 197 of the Act payable to such of the Directors who were in default in calling the meeting.
- 16.7.6 A meeting called by the requisitionists shall be held either at the registered office of the Company or at some other place within the city in which the registered office of the Company is situated. All other Extraordinary General Meetings called shall be held at any place within India.
- 16.7.7 The Tribunal may subject to the provisions of Section 97 and 98 of the Act and the Rules, convene a meeting of members of the Company.
- 16.7.8 A General Meeting of the Company may be called by giving not less than clear 21 days' notice either in writing or through electronic mode in such manner as prescribed by the Act and the Rules.

Provided that a General Meeting may be called after giving shorter notice if consent thereto is given in writing or through electronic mode by not less than 95% of the members entitled to vote at such meeting.

Provided that where any members of the Company are entitled to vote only on one or more resolution(s) to be moved at the meeting and not on the others, those members shall be taken into account of the purpose of this Article in respect of the former resolution(s) but not in respect of the latter.

16.8 The notice of a General Meeting shall specify the place, date, day and the hour of the meeting and shall contain a statement of the business to be transacted at such meeting.

The notice shall also specify whether the meeting called is an Annual General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting.

16.9 The notice of every meeting of the Company shall be given to

- a. every member of the Company, legal representative of any deceased member or the assignee of an insolvent member;
- b. the auditor or auditors of the Company; and
- c. every Director of the Company.

16.10 Any accidental omission to give notice (of any meeting to or the non-receipt of any such notice) by any of the members or any other person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of or any resolution passed at such meeting.

16.11 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting commenced business. The quorum shall be:

- a. Five members personally present if the number of members as on the date of the meeting is not more than one thousand;
- b. Fifteen members personally present if the number of members as on the date of the meeting is more than one thousand but up to five thousand;
- c. Thirty members personally present if the number of members as on the date of the meeting exceeds five thousand;

Or such other number as may be prescribed under the Act from time to time.

16.12 If within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the requisite quorum is not present, then the meeting, if called upon the requisition of members, shall stand cancelled and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other date and such other time and place as the Board may decide by providing the requisite notice to the meeting as prescribed under Section 103 of the Act.

If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, then the members present shall be a quorum.

The Chairman with the consent of members of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and if so directed by the members of such meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

Save as aforesaid, and save as provided in the Act, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

16.13 The Chairman of the Board shall preside as the Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company.

16.14 If there is no such Chairman, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman of the meeting, then the Directors present shall elect one amongst them to be Chairman of the meeting.

16.15 If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as Chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall, by show of hands unless a poll or electronic voting is demanded, choose one amongst them to be Chairman of the meeting.

16.16 No business shall be discussed or transacted at any General Meeting except election of Chairman whilst the chair is vacant.

16.17 At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote at the meeting shall be decided by voting through electronic means (remote e-voting and evoting at the meeting venue) or such other mode as may be prescribed and applicable to the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Act & Rules referred therein and Listing Regulations.

16.18 A declaration by the Chairman of the meeting of the passing of a resolution or poll or voting through electronic means and an entry to that effect in the books containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of passing of such resolution or otherwise, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes cast in favour of or against such resolution.

16.19 If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such a manner as the Chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be a decision of the meeting on the resolution on which the poll was demanded.

16.20 A poll demanded on the election of Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any question (other than the election of the Chairman or on a question of adjournment) shall be taken at such time, not being later than forty- eight hours from the time when the demand was made, as the Chairman of the meeting may direct. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Chairman of the meeting shall have power to regulate the manner in which a poll shall be taken and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting on the resolution on which the poll was taken.

16.21 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the persons who made the demand.

- 16.22 Where a poll is to be taken or electronic voting facility is granted including for voting through postal ballot, the Chairman of the meeting shall appoint scrutiniser(s) to scrutinise the votes given on the poll/evoting/ voting on ballot paper and to report thereon to him. The manner in which the Chairman of the meeting shall get the poll/voting process scrutinised and report thereon shall be as per Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 and any amendment thereof.
- 16.23 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than question on which the poll has been demanded.
- 16.24 On any business at any General Meeting, in case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or electronically or on a poll, the Chairman shall not have a second or casting vote.
- 16.25 At every Annual General Meeting of the Company there shall be laid on the table the Directors' report and audited statement of accounts, Auditors' Report (if not already incorporated in the audited statement of accounts), the Proxy Register with proxies and such other Registers and documents as may be required under the Act or Rules or any other regulation in force applicable to the Company.
- 16.26 The Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings of every General Meeting to be kept in accordance with the provisions of the Act. Any such minutes kept as aforesaid shall be evidence of the proceedings recorded therein.
- 16.27 The books containing the minutes of the proceedings of any General Meeting of the Company or a resolution passed by postal ballot shall:
- a. be kept at the registered office of the Company; and
 - b. be open to inspection of any member without charge, during 11.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. on all working days other than Saturdays and Sundays.
- 16.28 A body corporate (whether a company within the meaning of Act or not) may be represented at any general meeting by its representative as provided in Section 113 of the Act.
- 16.29 Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded and in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote both on a show of hands on a poll.
- 16.30 Before or on the declaration of the result of the voting on any resolution on a show of hands, a poll may be ordered to be taken by the Chairman of the Meeting of his own motion and shall be ordered to be taken by him or on a demand made in that behalf by any member or members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the company.
- a. which confer a power to vote on the resolution not being less than one-tenth of total voting power in respect of the resolution, or
 - b. on which an aggregate sum of not less than fifty thousand rupees has been paid up.
- 16.31 Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares

- a. on a show of hands, every member present in person shall have one vote; and
- b. on a poll or in e-voting, the voting rights of members (present in person or proxy) shall be in proportion to his share in the paid-up equity share capital of the Company.

A member may exercise his vote at a meeting by electronic means in accordance with the Act and shall vote only once.

16.32 The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the decision of the meeting on the resolution on which the poll was taken.

16.33 No member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid or on the shares in regard to which the Company has exercised any right of lien.

16.34 A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands (if permitted and applicable to the Company) or on a poll/e-voting, by his Committee or other legal guardian, and any such Committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy. If any member be a minor, the vote in respect of his share or shares shall be by his legal guardian.

16.35 Any member entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a member or not) as a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his behalf.

16.36 A proxy so appointed shall not have the right to speak at such meeting and shall not be entitled to vote except on a poll.

16.37 A person appointed as a proxy shall act on behalf of such member or number of members not exceeding fifty and holding in aggregate not more than ten percent of the total share capital of the Company carrying voting rights or such number as may be prescribed.

16.38 The instrument appointing a proxy shall :

- a. be in writing ; and
- b. be signed by the appointer or his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the appointer is body corporate, be under its seal or be signed by an officer or an authority duly authorized by it.

16.39 The instrument appointing a proxy in such form as prescribed in the Rules shall be in writing under the hand of appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointer is a Company either under the common seal or under the hand of an Officer or attorney so authorised.

Proxies together with the power of attorney or any other authorization document, if any, shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

16.40 A vote cast in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed:

Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation of authority shall have been received by the Company at its registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

16.41 No objection shall be raised as to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purpose. The decision of the Chairman on any such objection made in due time shall be final and conclusive

16.42 On a poll taken at a meeting of the company a member entitled to more than one vote, or his proxy or other person entitled to vote for him, as the case may be, need not if he votes, use all his vote or cast in the same way all the votes he uses.

16.43 In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.

16.44 Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.

16.45 Member who has not appointed a Proxy to attend and vote on his behalf at a Meeting may appoint a Proxy for any adjourned Meeting, not later than forty-eight hours before the time of such adjourned Meeting.

17 Records and Registers

The Company shall keep and maintain at its registered office all statutory registers namely, register of charges, register of members, register of debenture holders, register of any other security holders, the register and index of beneficial owners and annual return, register of loans, guarantees, security and acquisitions, register of investments not held in its own name, register of contracts and arrangements and such other registers as may be prescribed from time to time for such duration as the Board may, unless otherwise prescribed, decide, and in such manner and containing such particulars as prescribed by the Act and the Rules.

a) The Company shall keep and maintain all statutory registers at its registered office or at such places as approved by the board.

The records and registers allowed for inspection as per the provisions of the Act (Sections 85, 88, 94, 119, 120, 170, 171, 186, 187 and 189 of the Act) shall—

- (i) be kept at the registered office of the Company; and
- (ii) be open to inspection by any member without charge, during 10.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. on all working days other than Saturdays and Sundays.
- (iii) Such member only shall be entitled to be furnished, within the time prescribed by the Act, after he has made a request in writing in that behalf to the Company and on payment of Rs. 10/- per page or such other fees as may be fixed by the board, with a copy of the records, provided that a member who has made a request for provision of a soft copy of the records, shall be entitled to be furnished with the same free of cost.

- (iv) Notwithstanding anything contained above, any member shall be entitled to be furnished within the time prescribed by the Act, after he has made a request in writing in that behalf to the Company for furnishing the records relating to the period immediately preceding financial year but not more than 8 preceding financial years, on payment of the following fees:
- For annual reports - Rs. 100/- per copy.
 - Any other records which are allowed for inspection and taking extract - Rs. 10/- per page.

(b) Copies of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company and other documents referred to in Section 17 of the Act, shall be sent by the Company to every member at his request within seven days of the request on payment of the sum of Rs. 100/- per copy.

(c) Registers / records of the Company may be maintained in the formats prescribed under the Act and rules made thereunder in electronic form in such manner as the board of directors of the company may think fit.

18 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- 18.1 Unless otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting, the number of Directors shall not be less than 3 (three) and shall not be more than 15 (fifteen). The Company may in General Meeting appoint more than fifteen Directors after passing a special resolution.
The first Directors of the Company are:-

- 18.2 Not less than two-third of the total number of Directors of the Company shall be persons whose period of office is liable to determination by retirement of directors by rotation.
- 18.3 At every Annual General Meeting of the Company one- third of such of the Directors for the time being as are liable to retire by rotation or if their number is neither three nor a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third shall retire by rotation. The Managing Director(s), Whole-time Director(s) and Independent Director(s) shall not, while they continue to hold that office, be subject to retirement by rotation except to the extent necessary to comply with the provisions of the Act.
- 18.4 For the purpose of this Article, 'total number of Directors' shall not include Independent Directors of the Company whether appointed under this Act or any other law for the time being in force.
- 18.5 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors to retire by rotation under the foregoing Article at every Annual General Meeting shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment, but as between persons who became Directors on the same day, those who are to retire shall, in default of and subject to any agreement among themselves, be determined by lot.
- 18.6 At the annual general meeting at which a Director retires as aforesaid the Company may fill up the vacancy by appointing the retiring Director or some other person thereto.

- 18.7 At any meeting at which an election of Directors ought to take place, if the vacancy of the retiring Director is not filled up and the meeting has not expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy, the meeting shall stand adjourned till the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or if that day is a national holiday, till the next succeeding day which is not a holiday, at the same time and place.

If at the adjourned meeting, the vacancy of the retiring Director is not filled up and that the meeting has also not expressly resolved not to fill up the vacancy, the retiring Directors shall be deemed to have been reappointed at the adjourned meeting subject to conditions prescribed under Section 152 of the Act.

The expression 'Retiring Director' means a Director retiring by rotation.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, a retiring Director shall be eligible for re-appointment and the Company at the Annual General Meeting at which a Director retires in manner aforesaid may fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto.

- 18.8 Subject to the provisions of the Act, any person who is not a retiring Director shall be eligible for appointment to the office of Director at any General Meeting, if he, or some member intending to propose him as a Director has, not less than fourteen days before the meeting, left at the registered office of the Company, a notice in writing under his hand signifying his candidature for the office as a Director or, as the case may be, the intention of such member to propose him as a candidate for that office, as the case may be along with a deposit as prescribed by the Act which shall be refunded to such person or, as the case may be, to the member, if the person proposed gets elected as a Director or gets more than twenty-five per cent of total valid votes cast on such resolution.

Every person (other than a Director retiring by rotation or otherwise or a person who has left at the office of the Company a notice under Section 160 signifying his candidature for the office of a Director) proposed as a candidate for the office of a Director shall sign and file with the Company, his consent in writing to act as a Director, if appointed

- 18.9 At any general meeting a motion shall not be made for the appointment of two or more persons as Directors by a single resolution unless a resolution that it shall be so made has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

- 18.10 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint a person as an Additional Director, provided the number of the Directors and Additional Directors together shall not at any time exceed the maximum strength fixed for the Board by the Articles.

An Additional Director shall hold office up to the date of the next Annual General Meeting of the Company but shall be eligible for appointment by the Company as a Director subject to the provisions of the Act.

The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board; but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act for a meeting of the Board, the continuing Directors or Director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that fixed for the quorum, or of summoning a General Meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.

18.11 The Company may agree with financial institution, Company or any other authority, person, State or institution that in consideration of any loan or financial assistance of any kind whatsoever which may be rendered by it, it shall have power to nominate such number of directors on the Board of Directors of the Company as may be agreed and from time to time remove and re-appoint them and to fill in vacancy caused by such Directors otherwise ceasing to hold office. Such nominated Directors shall not be required to hold any qualification shares and shall not be liable to retire by rotation. The Director appointed under this Article is hereinafter referred to as 'institutional Director' in these presents.

18.12 A Director shall not be required to hold any qualification shares.

18.13 The office of a Director shall be vacated in the circumstances set out in Section 167 of the Act.

18.14 The Board may appoint an Alternate Director to act for a Director (hereinafter in this Article called "the Original Director") during his absence for a period of not less than three months from India. No person shall be appointed as an Alternate Director for an Independent Director unless he is qualified to be appointed as an Independent Director under the provisions of the Act. If the term of office of the Original Director is determined before he returns to India the automatic reappointment of retiring Directors in default of another appointment shall apply to the Original Director and not to the Alternate Director.

An Alternate Director shall not hold office for a period longer than that permissible to the Original Director in whose place he has been appointed and shall vacate the office if and when the Original Director returns to India.

18.15 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles and pursuant to provisions of the Act and Rules made thereunder, the Board of Directors may from time to time appoint any such person as a "Nominee Director". For the purpose of this Article, "Nominee Director" means a Director nominated by any institution in pursuance of the provisions of any law for the time being in force, or of any agreement, or appointed by any Government, or any other person to represent its interests.

18.16 If the office of any Director appointed by the Company in General Meeting is vacated before his term of office expires in the normal course, the resulting casual vacancy may be filled by the Board of Directors subject to the provisions of the Act.

The Director so appointed shall hold office only up to the date up to which the Director in whose place he is appointed would have held office if the said Director had not vacated.

18.17 The Company shall have at least one Director who has stayed in India for a total period of not less than one hundred and eighty-two days in the previous calendar year.

18.18 The manner of appointment of the Independent Directors to the Board shall be in accordance with the Act or Rules or the Listing Regulations in force.

The Independent Directors so appointed shall hold office for a term up to five consecutive years on the Board of the Company, but shall be eligible for re-appointment on passing of a special resolution by the Company.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the above mentioned provision of this Article, no Independent Director shall hold office for more than two consecutive terms of five years each, but such Independent Director shall be eligible for appointment after the expiration of three years of ceasing to become an Independent Director.

Provided that an Independent Director shall not, during the said period of three years, be appointed in or be associated with the Company in any other capacity, either directly or indirectly.

The Company and Independent Directors shall abide by the provisions specified in Schedule IV to the Act.

18.19 The Company shall have such number of Woman Director(s) on the Board as may be prescribed by the Act from time to time.

18.20 The Directors, other than those in receipt of any salary from the Company, may be paid a sitting fee of such sum as the Board may decide subject to the maximum limits prescribed by the Act or Rules made thereunder from time to time, for every meeting of the Board of Directors or Committee thereof, attended by them.

18.21 The remuneration payable to the Directors, including any Managing or Whole-time Director or Manager, if any, shall be determined in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Act.

18.22 If any Director, being willing, be called upon to perform extra services, or special exertions or efforts for any of the purposes of the Company, the Board may arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such extra services or special exertion or efforts either by a fixed sum or otherwise as may be determined by the Board and such remuneration may be in addition to his/her remuneration above provided subject to the Special Remuneration to Directors on Company's business or otherwise performing extra services limits prescribed under the Act.

18.23 In addition to the remuneration payable to them in pursuance of the Act, the Directors may be paid travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by them—

- a. in attending and returning from meetings of the Board of Directors or any Committee thereof or General Meetings of the Company; or
- b. in connection with the business of the Company.

18.24 All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, hundis, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.

18.25 Every Director present at any meeting of the Board or of a Committee thereof shall sign his name in attendance register to be kept for that purpose. In case of Directors participating through Electronic mode, the attendance register shall be deemed to have been signed by the Directors participating through Electronic mode, if their attendance is recorded by the Chairman or the Company Secretary in the Attendance Register and Minutes of the meeting.

18.26 Subject to the provisions of Section 164 of the Act, a person shall not be eligible for appointment as a Director, if

- a. he is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; he is an undischarged insolvent;
- b. he has applied to be adjudicated as an insolvent and his application is pending;
- c. he has been convicted by a court of any offence, whether involving moral turpitude or otherwise, and sentenced in respect thereof to imprisonment for not less than six months and a period of five years has not elapsed from the date of expiry of the sentence:

Provided that if a person has been convicted of any offence and sentenced in respect thereof to imprisonment for a period of seven years or more, he shall not be eligible to be appointed as a Director in any Company;

- d. an order disqualifying him for appointment as a director has been passed by a court or Tribunal and the order is in force;
- e. he has not paid any calls in respect of any shares of the Company held by him, whether alone or jointly with others, and six months have elapsed from the last day fixed for the payment of the call;
- f. he has been convicted of the offence dealing with related party transactions under section 188 at any time during the last preceding five years; or
- g. he has not complied with sub-section (3) of section 152.

Notwithstanding anything contained in (d), (e), (g) aforesaid, the disqualifications referred to in those sub-Articles shall not take effect—

- i. for thirty days from the date of conviction or order of disqualification;
- ii. where an appeal or petition is preferred within thirty days as aforesaid against the conviction resulting in sentence or order, until expiry of seven days from the date on which such appeal or petition is disposed off; or
- iii. where any further appeal or petition is preferred against order or sentence within seven days, until such further appeal or petition is disposed off.

18.27 No person who is or has been a Director of a company which—

- a. has not filed financial statements or annual returns for any continuous period of three financial years; or
- b. has failed to repay the deposits accepted by it or pay interest thereon or to redeem any debentures on the due date or pay interest due thereon or pay any dividend declared and such failure to pay or redeem continues for one year or more, shall be eligible to be appointed / re-appointed as a Director for a period of five years from the date on which the said company fails to comply.

18.28 Subject to the provisions of Section 169 and other applicable provisions of the Act and these Articles, the Company may by an ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiry of his period of office after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

A Special notice pursuant to Section 115 of the Act shall be given of any resolution to remove a Director under this Article or to appoint some other person in place of a Director so removed, at the meeting at which he is removed.

A vacancy created by the removal of a Director may, if he had been appointed by the Company in General Meeting or by the Board, be filled by the appointment of another Director in his place at the meeting at which he is removed, provided special notice of the intended appointment has been given as mentioned hereinabove.

A Director so appointed shall hold office till the date up to which his predecessor would have held office if he had not been removed.

18.29 Subject to the provisions of the Act and, the Articles hereof and the observant and fulfilment thereof, Directors (including Managing Director) shall not be disqualified by reason of their office as such from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchaser, agent, broker or otherwise, nor shall any such contract, or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested, be avoided nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office, or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, provided that the nature of his interest is disclosed by him/her as provided under Section 184 of the Act.

19 POWERS OF THE BOARD

19.1 The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board and the Board may exercise all such powers, and do all such acts and things, as the Company is by these Articles or otherwise authorized to exercise and do, and, not hereby or by the statute or otherwise directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in General Meeting but subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act and other laws and of the Memorandum and these Articles and to any regulations, not being inconsistent with the Memorandum and these Articles or the Act, from time to time made by the Company in General Meeting provided that no such regulation shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

19.2 Subject to Section 73 to 76 and (old act provisions to be removed) of Act, the Directors may from time to time at their discretion raise or borrow from any person or persons and receive the payment of any sum or sums of money borrowed for the purposes of the Company, and may themselves lend to the Company on any security or otherwise, any sums of money or arrange to obtain banking credit or other banking facilities and may generally exercise all the powers of borrowing and raising of money vested in the Company by the Memorandum of Association.

19.3 The Directors may raise or secure the repayment of any sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and in particular by the creation of any mortgage, or charge on the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property, present or future, or uncalled capital of the Company or by the issue of bonds, perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture-stock of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future including its uncalled capital for the time being.

19.4 Without derogating the powers vested with the Board under these Articles, the Board shall exercise the powers stated in Section 179(3) of the Act and the Rules referred therein only by means of resolutions passed at the meeting of the Board.

Provided further that the Board may, by a resolution passed at a meeting, delegate to any Committee of Directors, the Managing Director, the Manager or any other principal officer of the Company or in the case of a branch office of the Company, the principal officer of the branch office, certain powers as laid out in (d) to (f) of Section 179(3) of the Act and such other powers which may be delegated as prescribed by the Act subject to the conditions laid thereunder.

19.5 The Board of Directors shall not except with the consent of the Company at a General meeting exercise the powers specified in Section 180(1) of the Act.

19.6 Except with the consent of the Board, a Director of the Company or his relative a firms, in which such a Director or relative is a partner, any other partner in such a firm or a private company of which the director is a member of Director, shall not enter into any contract with the Company;

- a. for sale, purchase or supply of any goods, materials or services; or
- b. for underwriting the subscription of any shares in, or debenture of the Company.

19.7 Nothing contained in sub-clause 18.6 shall affect:

- (a) the purchase of goods and materials from the Company, or the sale of goods and materials to the Company by any Director, relative, firm, partner or private company as aforesaid for cash at arms length price; or
- (b) any contract or contracts between the Company on one side and any such Director, relative firm, partner or private Company on the other for sale, purchase or supply of any goods materials and services in which either the Company or the Director, relative, firm, partner or private Company, as the case may be, regularly trade or does business.

Provided that such contract or contracts do not relate to goods and materials the value of which, or services the cost of which, exceeds such values as may be specified in the Act from time to time, in the aggregate in any year comprised in the period of the contract or contracts;

19.8 Every Director of the Company who is any way, whether directly or indirectly concerned or interested in a contract or arrangement, or proposed contract or arrangement, entered into or to be entered into by or on behalf of the Company shall disclose the nature of his concern or interest at a meeting of the Board.

19.9 Disclosure of Interest by Directors

- 19.9.1 In the case of a proposed contract or arrangement the disclosure required to be made by a Director under clause 18.8 shall be made, at the meeting of the Board at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration or if the Director was not, at the date of that meeting, concerned, or interested in the proposed contract or arrangement, at the first meeting of the Board held after he becomes so concerned or interested.
- 19.9.2 In the case of any other contract or arrangement, the required disclosure shall be made at the first meeting of the Board held after the Director becomes concerned or interested in the contract or arrangement, 18.9.2.1
- 19.9.3 For the purpose of clause 18.8 and 18.9 hereof, a general notice given to the Board by a Director, to the effect that he is a director or a member of a specified body corporate or is a member of a specified firm and is to be regarded as concerned or interested in any contract or arrangement which may, after the date of the notice, be entered into with that body corporate or firm, shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of concern or interest in relation to any contract or arrangement so made.
- 19.9.4 Any such general notice shall expire at the end of the financial year in which it is given, but may be renewed for further periods of one financial year at a time by a fresh notice given in the last month of the financial year in which it would otherwise expire.
- 19.9.5 No such general notice, and no renewal thereof, shall be of effect unless either it is given at a meeting of the Board or the Director concerned takes reasonable steps to secure that it is brought up and read at the next meeting of the Board after it is given.
- 19.9.6 Nothing in this Article shall be taken to prejudice the operations of any rule of law restricting the Director of the Company from having any concern or interest in any contract or arrangement with the Company.

19.10 Nothing in this Article shall apply to any contract or arrangement referred to in 184(5) of the Act.

19.11 No Director shall, as a Director, take any part in the discussion of, or vote on any contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into, by or on behalf of the Company if he is in any way, whether directly or indirectly concerned or interested in the contract or arrangement, nor shall his presence count for the purpose of forming a quorum at the time of any such discussion or vote; and if he does vote, his vote shall be void.

19.12 The Company shall keep all such register as are required by the Act, and allow inspection thereof in the manner provided in the Act.

19.13 Every Director shall be paid a sitting fee not exceeding such sum as may be determined by the Board subject to the maximum as may be prescribed by the Central Government from time to time, under the relevant provision of the Act, for each meeting of the Board or any Committee thereof attended by him, or may be decided by the Board of Directors from time to time, in addition to the traveling and out of pocket expenses incurred for attending the meetings.

19.14 Subject to the provisions of Section 179 of the Act, the Board/Committee may appoint at any time and from time to time by a power-of-attorney under the Company's Seal any person to be the attorney of the Company for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions (not exceeding those vested in or exercisable by the Board in these Articles) and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board may from time to time think fit, and any such appointment may (if the Board think fit) be made in favour of the members, or any of the members of any firm or Company, or the members, Directors, nominees or Managers of any firm or Company or otherwise in favour of anybody or persons, whether nominated directly or indirectly by the Board and any such power-of- attorney may contain such provision for the protection or convenience of persons dealing with such attorney as the Board may think fit.

The Board may authorize any such delegate or attorney as aforesaid to sub-delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretion for the time being vested in them.

19.15 The Board of Directors may from time to time, raise any money or any monies or sums of money for the purpose of the Company provided that the monies to be borrowed by the Company, together with the money already borrowed apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's bankers in the ordinary course or business shall not without the sanction of the Company exceed the aggregate of the paid-up capital of the Company and its free reserves that is to say reserves not set apart for any specific purpose. Subject to the provisions of Section 179 of the Act, the Board may from time to time at their discretion raise or borrow or secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purpose of the Company, by the issue of debentures perpetual or otherwise including debentures convertible into shares of this or any other Company or perpetual annuities and security of any such money so borrowed, raised, or received, mortgage, pledge or charge, the whole or any part of the property, assets, or revenue of the Company present or future, including its uncalled capital by special assignment or otherwise or to transfer or convey the same absolutely or in trust and to give the lenders powers of sale of the property except uncalled capital and other powers as may be expedient and to purchase, redeem or pay off any securities.

Provided that every resolution passed by the Company in relation to the exercise of the power to borrow as stated above shall specify the total amount up to which monies may be borrowed by the Board of Directors.

19.16 The Directors may by a resolution of a meeting of the Board delegate the above power to borrow money otherwise than on debentures to a Committee of Directors or the Managing Directors, if any, within the limits prescribed.

19.17 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board may, from time to time, at their discretion, borrow monies in such mode as the Board may deem fit.

19.18 The Board, may, out of the profits of the Company available for payment of dividend, set aside such sums as prescribed by the Act and the Rules for the purpose of redemption of debentures which may be issued by the Company in such amounts at such premium in such manner and at such period as the Board may think expedient.

20 MEETINGS OF BOARD

20.1 (a) The minimum number of directors shall not be less than 3 (three) or such number of directors as may be prescribed by the Act / other laws, from time to time and shall not be more than 15 (fifteen).

Provided that, if the number of directors exceeds 15 or such other limit prescribed under the Act and the Rules, prior permission of the members in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(b) Retirement by rotation

The board shall have the power to determine the directors, whose period of office is or is not liable to retire by rotation. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election.

At every Annual General Meeting of the Company, one-third of such of the directors for the time being as are liable to retire by rotation or if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third shall retire from office of director.

Subject to the provisions of the Act, Independent Director, Nominee Director and Chairman, of the Company, shall not be subject to retirement under this Article.

20.1 The Board of Directors may meet for the conduct of business from time to time and shall so meet at least once in every three months and at least four such meetings shall be held in every year in such a manner that not more than one hundred and twenty days shall intervene between two consecutive meetings of the Board and may adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings, as it deems fit.

20.2 A meeting of the Board shall be called by giving not less than seven days' notice in writing to every Director at his address registered with the Company and such notice shall be sent by hand delivery or by post or by electronic means.

Provided that a meeting of the Board may be called at shorter notice to transact urgent business subject to the condition that at least one Independent Director shall be present at the meeting. In case of absence of Independent Directors from such a meeting of the Board, decisions taken at such a meeting shall be circulated to all the Directors and shall be final only on ratification thereof by at least one Independent Director.

20.3 The participation of Directors in a meeting of the Board may be either in person or through video conferencing or audio visual means, as may be prescribed by the Rules or permitted under law.

20.4 The quorum for a Board meeting shall be one-third of its total strength or three Directors, whichever is higher, and the participation of the Directors by video conferencing or by other audio visual means shall also be counted for the purposes of quorum as provided in the Act.

- 20.5 If within half an hour from the time fixed for holding a meeting of the Board, a quorum as specified above is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day, time and place by two weeks unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties concerned, and if at such adjourned meeting of the Board the quorum as stated herein is not present within half an hour from the time fixed for holding the meeting, the Directors present shall constitute a valid quorum.
- 20.6 Where at any time the number of interested Directors as specified under Section 184 of the Act is equal to or exceeds two-thirds of the total strength of the Board, the number of Directors who are not interested Directors and present at the meeting, being not less than two, shall be the quorum during such time.
- 20.7 For the purpose of this Article, 'total strength' shall not include Directors whose places are vacant.
- 20.8 In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the Board, if any, shall not have a second or casting vote.
- 20.9 The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office: but if no such Chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or is not willing to act, the Directors present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 20.10 The continuing Director may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act, for a meeting of the Board, the continuing Director or Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Director to that fixed for the quorum or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
- 20.11 The Board may delegate any of their powers to Committees (subject to the provisions of the Act) consisting of such number or numbers of their body as they think fit and they may from time to time revoke or discharge any such Committee either wholly or in part, and either as to persons or purposes.
- 20.12 A Committee may elect a Chairman of its meetings unless the Board, while constituting a Committee, has appointed a Chairman of such Committee.
- If no such Chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their members to be Chairman of the meeting. Committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit.
- 20.13 All acts done in any meeting of the Board or a Committee thereof or by any person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any one or more of such Directors or of any person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified be as valid as if every such Director or such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be Director.

20.14 Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a resolution in writing a draft of which is circulated together with the necessary papers if any, to all Directors or to all members of the Committee in India (not being less in number than the quorum fixed for a meeting of the Board or the Committee, as the case may be) and to all other Directors or members at their usual address in India and approved by such of the Directors as are then in India or by a majority of such of them as are entitled to vote on the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at meeting of the Board or Committee duly convened and held.

20.15 The Board shall cause minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of Committees of the Board to be duly entered in a book or books provided for the purpose in accordance with the relevant provisions of Section 118 of the Act. The minutes shall contain a fair and correct summary of the proceedings at the meeting including the following:

- a. the names of the Directors present at the meetings of the Board of Directors or of any Committee of the Board;
- b. in the case of each resolution passed at the meeting, the names of the Directors, if any, dissenting from or not concurring in the resolution.

All such minutes of the meetings of the Directors, or of any Committees shall be signed by the Chairman of such meeting or the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting and all the minutes purported to be so signed shall for all purposes whatsoever be prima facie evidence of the actual passing of the resolutions recorded.

The Chairman of the Meeting may exclude at his absolute discretion such of the matters as are or would reasonably be regarded as defamatory of any person, irrelevant, or immaterial to the proceedings or detrimental to the interests of the Company.

20.16 Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a meeting of the Directors for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the Articles of the Company for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Directors generally and all matters arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes.

20.17 All acts done in any meeting of the Board or of a Committee thereof or by any person acting as a Director, shall, notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any one or more of such Directors or of any person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified or that his or their appointment had terminated, be as valid as if every such Director or such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Director.

20.18 Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing, signed, whether manually or by electronic mode or approved electronically through e-mail or any other permitted mode, by a majority of the members of the Board or of a Committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or Committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or Committee, duly convened and held.

20.19 Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing, signed, whether manually or by electronic mode or approved electronically through e-mail or any other permitted mode, by a majority of the members of the Board or of a Committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or Committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or Committee, duly convened and held.

20.21 a) The meetings of the board / committee may be convened and conducted in a secured way through digital applications.

(b) All the documents relating to the meeting including:

(i) Notice of the board / committee meetings

(ii) Any notification relating to change in meeting schedules

be eligible for re-appointment as auditor in the Company for five years from the completion of such term.

The Remuneration of the Statutory Auditors of the Company shall be fixed by the Company in General Meeting.

The remuneration shall, in addition to the fee payable to an auditor, include the expenses, if any, incurred by the auditor in connection with the audit of the Company and any facility extended to him but need not include any remuneration paid to him for any other service rendered by him at the request of the Company.

The above conditions of term and rotation will be subject to the provisions of the Act from time to time.

25.9 The report by the Board of Directors containing matters as prescribed under Section 134 of the Act and the Rules referred therein shall be signed in the manner prescribed in the Act and be annexed to the financial statements laid before a Company in a General Meeting.

25.10 The Auditors' report shall be attached to every financial statement.

25.11 The books of account of every Company relating to a period of not less than eight financial years immediately preceding the current year together with the vouchers relevant to any entry in such books of account shall be preserved in good order.

25.12 Without prejudice to the provisions of Section 101 of the Act, a copy of the financial statements, including consolidated financial statements, if any, auditor's report and every other document required by law to be annexed or attached to the financial statements, which are to be laid before a Company in its General Meeting, shall be sent to every member of the Company, to every trustee for the debenture-holder of any debentures issued by the Company and to all persons other than such member or trustee, being the person so entitled, not less than twenty-one days before the date of the General meeting.

Provided that the provisions of this Article shall be deemed to be complied with, if the copies of the documents are made available for inspection at the registered office during working hours for a period of twenty-one days before the date of the meeting and a statement containing the salient features of such documents as prescribed by the Act or copies of the documents, as the Company may deem fit, is sent to every member of the Company and to every trustee for the holders of any debentures issued by the Company not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting unless the shareholders ask for full financial statements.

25.13 Subject to the provisions of the Act and related Rules, a retiring auditor may be re-appointed at an annual general meeting if-

- I. he is not disqualified for re-appointment;
- II. he has not given the Company a notice in writing of his unwillingness to be re-appointed;
- III. a resolution has not been passed at that meeting appointing some other auditor or providing expressly that he shall not be reappointed;

25.14 An individual or firm shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting subject to the fulfilment of the eligibility criteria, qualifications and disqualifications prescribed under the Act.

25.15 Any casual vacancy in the office of a Statutory Auditor shall be filled by the Board within thirty days from the date on which such vacancy arose. But if such casual vacancy is as a result of resignation of a Statutory Auditor, such appointments will also be required to be approved by the members within three months from the date of recommendation by the Board in this regard.

25.16 The Board may appoint a Company Secretary in practice as a Secretarial Auditor, if so required under Section 204 of the Act and the Rules referred therein.

25.17 The Board may appoint an Internal Auditor, if so required under Section 138 of the Act, who shall either be a Chartered Accountant or a Cost Accountant or such other professional as the Board may decide from time to time.

25.18 The powers and duties of the Statutory Auditors, Cost Auditors and Secretarial Auditors shall be as per the provisions of Section 143 of the Act.

26 CAPITALISATION OF PROFIT

26.1 The Company by resolution, as prescribed under the Act, in General Meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve –

- a. that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and
- b. that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in Article below amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.

26.2 The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in Article 25.3 below, either in or towards:

- a. paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;
- b. paying up in full, unissued shares or other securities of the Company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid;
- c. partly in the way specified in sub-Article (a) and partly in that specified in sub-Article (b).

26.3 A securities premium account and a capital redemption reserve account or any other permissible reserve account may, for the purposes of this Article, be applied in the paying up of unissued shares to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares;

26.4 The Board shall give effect to the resolution passed by the Company in pursuance of this Article.

26.5 Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed, the Board shall -

- a. make all appropriations and applications of the amounts resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments and issues of fully paid shares or other securities, if any; and
- b. generally do all acts and things required to give effect thereto.

26.6 The Board shall have power—

- a. to make such provisions, by the issue of fractional certificates/coupons or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit, for the case of shares or other securities becoming distributable in fractions; and
- b. to authorize any person to enter, on behalf of all the members entitled thereto, into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares or other securities to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or as the case may require, for the payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amount or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares.

26.7 Any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on such members.

27 DIVIDENDS

27.1 The Company in General Meeting may subject to Section 123 of the Act declare dividends to be paid to members, but no dividend so declared shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

27.2 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends of such amount on such class of shares and at such times as it may think fit.

27.3 Dividend shall be declared or paid by a Company for any financial year

- a. out of the profits of the Company for that year arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or out of the profits of the Company for any previous financial year or years arrived at after providing for depreciation in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section and remaining undistributed, or out of both; or
- b. out of money provided by the Central Government or a State Government for the payment of dividend by the Company in pursuance of a guarantee given by that Government.

Where, owing to inadequacy or absence of profits in any financial year, if the Company proposes to declare dividend out of the accumulated profits earned by it in its previous years and transferred to the reserves, such declaration of dividend shall be made subject to the fulfilment of the conditions as prescribed in the Rules.

No dividend shall be declared or paid by a Company from its reserves other than free reserves.

27.4 Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid up on the shares. No amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purpose of this Article as paid on the share.

All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly

- 27.5 Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by electronic mode or by cheque or warrant sent through the post or such other manner as may be directed by the applicable laws, directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register of members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct.
- 27.6 Every dividend shall be paid or the warrant or instrument thereof shall be dispatched within the time provided in the Act except in the following cases namely:-
- a. Where the dividend could not be paid by reason of operation of any law;
 - b. Where a shareholder has given directions to the Company regarding the payment of dividend and those directions cannot be complied with and the same has been communicated to the shareholder;
 - c. Where there is a dispute regarding the right of the dividend;
 - d. Where the dividend has been lawfully adjusted by the Company against any sum due to it from the shareholder;
- 27.7 No dividend shall bear interest against the Company.
- 27.8 Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to the persons entitled to the shares therein mentioned. No unclaimed or unpaid dividends shall be forfeited by the Board.
- The Board shall comply with the applicable provisions of the Act in respect of any unclaimed or unpaid dividend including transfer of such dividends (and shares thereto) to the Investor Education and Protection Fund in the manner as may be prescribed from time to time.
- 27.9 The Board may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applied for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalising dividends; and pending such application, may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the Board may, from time to time, think fit.
- 27.10 The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may consider necessary not to divide, without setting them aside as a reserve.
- 27.11 The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
- 27.12 The Board may retain dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is, under the Transmission Clause hereinbefore contained, entitled to become a member, until such person shall become a member in respect of such shares.
- 27.13 Every such cheque or warrant, if paid in physical form, shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
- 27.14 Payment in any way whatsoever shall be made at the risk of the person entitled to the money paid or to be paid. The Company will not be responsible for a payment which is lost or delayed. The Company will be deemed to having made a payment and received a good discharge for it if a payment using any of the foregoing permissible means is made. In case of joint holders, dividend paid to the first holder shall be an effective discharge.

27.15 The waiver in whole or in part of any dividend on any share by any document (whether or not under seal) shall be effective only if such document is signed by the member (or the person entitled to the share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of the holder) and delivered to the Company and if or to the extent that the same is accepted as such or acted upon by the Board.
